PLACES TO VISIT NEAR AMRAVATI

Chikhaldara

The deep misty valleys of Chikhaldara has a new shade in every fold unwrapped. Chikhaldara is located in Amravati district of Vidarbha region. The only hill station in the Vidarbha region offers you an abundance of wildlife, viewpoints, lakes and waterfalls. Chikhaldara has many things to be explored. The main attractions of Chikhaldara are - Garden, Malviya point, Hurricane point, Devi point, Mozri point, Gavilgad forte, Mahadeo temple Chikhaldara is 110 km from Amravati app 3 hours journey.

The Ambadevi Temple

The oldest and the most divine temple of the entire Amravati district is the Shri Ambadevi temple. Situated in the heart of the Amravati town, the temple complex illustrates very old scriptures engraved on the walls. The temple is dedicated to the main deity of the district "Goddess Amba", who is another incarnation of Goddess Durga. Thus tourists can experience a grand festival in and around 'Ambadevi Temple, during the time of the Navratri. Amravati district is believed to have been named after the presiding deity, which translates as "The Eternal City" or The City of The Immortals."

Kondeshwar Temple

Kondeshwar temple, dedicated to Lord Shiva, is an ancient elephant temple located in the middle of a dense forest. This temple represents ancient Hemadpanthi style of architecture and is constructed using black stones. The temple is around 15 kms from the Amravati city centre, The main sanctum sanctorum is surrounded by several shrines. Mahashivratri is one of the main festivals celebrated in this temple. As the temple is located on a rocky terrain, it is advisable not to visit the shrine during the monsoon season. Shri Khateshwar Maharaj Samadhi, a pond and a waterfall are located in the vicinity of this temple. Kondeshwar temple can be visited during timings 6:00 AM - 8:30 PM

Melghat Tiger Reserve

Melghat was among the first nine tiger reserves of India to be notified in 1973 under Project Tiger. It is located at 21°26'45"N 77°11'50"E in the northern part of Amravati District of Maharashtra. Melghat Wild Sanctuary was declared in 1985. The Tapi River flows through the northern part of Melghat Tiger Reserve, and forms the boundary of the reserve together with the Gavilgad ridge of the Satpura Range.
